Lodges From McAlester, Krebs, Harts-horne, Alderson and Haileyville to Celebrate Saturday, 26th.

The various Odd Fellow lodges along the line of the interurban will celebrate the 94th anniversary of that order on Saturday, April 26th by giving a grand picnic at Dow Lake.

The Krebs lodge will be represented by a full membership, as will also the lodges from Alderson, Haileyville, Hartshorne and McAlester.

The A. F. of M. band, numbering 18 pieces under the management of Newton W. Oglesby, have been engaged to furnish music for the occasion. This insures good music for the day.

An excellent program has been arranged for the day, besides the regular attractions such as boating, fishing and dancing.

Remember, the fare is only 25c for round trip from Krebs.

the mine. All were seriously burned. They could give no connected account of conditions in the mine. They all said "The mine is full of dead people."

Relatives and friends of the men beneath the surface were frantic. Many of them had to be restrained. After a time, a guard was placed completely surrounding the entrances to mine and all persons except rescuers and mine officials were held at a distance.

Snow Storm in Texas.

The worst snow storm of the season prevailed in Amarillo and throughout the Panhandle of Texas Wednesday. The snow began falling in the afternoon, the flakes began falling thicker and larger than any during the past season being driven by a heavy wind from the north.

Great damage was done the fruit and tender crops.

Wants to Help Us.

The Miner is receipt of a letter and other literature regarding monthly Sales Days from Col. H. L. Stites, auctioneer and manager of the monthly Sales Day at Pittsburg, Okla. We are personally acquainted with Col. Stites, and known his ability when it comes to "boosting". He makes us a very kind proposition offering to come to our first sale and do the auctioneering and lending any other assistance free of charge. In his letter he enclosed a photograph taken on Saturday April 5th, showing the streets of that hustling city fairly alive with people. We believe it would be a wise idea for our people to have Col. Stites to come over and give us a talk and help us get it started. He says he can be with us any Friday. Won't some of our citizens take an interest in this important matter?

Fatal Mine Explosion

Pittsburg, Pa., April 23—Between seventy-five and one hundred miners are believed to have lost their lives Wednesday in the Cincinnati mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, at Finleyville, twenty-seven miles from this city. From seventy-six to seventy-eight men made their escape. Some of them, however were badly burned. The bodies of several victims have been recovered. The mine is aflame. Rescue work is being carried on with difficulty, owing to the fire and deadly fumes. The coal company maintains a rescue corps patterned after the mine force of the United States government. Aid from the federal mining experts, it is said, was declined by the coal company.

Only a few of the miners who reached the surface could talk. Suffering from burns or fright, the miners only knew that an explosion had occurred and that a large number of men were either killed by the explosion or by the "after damp."

Several hours after the explosion seven foreign miners crawled from one of the entrances of

No More Pussyfoot's

Two abolition measures, one doing away with the office of state enforcement officer, and the other abolishing the twelve district state game wardens, both of which have been vetoed twice by Gov. Cruce, were re-passed by the senate Wednesday afternoon. The vote on the former was 32 to 8, and on the latter 32 to 9. Similar action on both measures has been taken by the house and they become effective over the governor's disapproval ninety days after adjournment. Neither carries the emergency clause.

Jury Failed to Agree.

The jury in the case against Claude Sawyer, charged with grand larceny, failed to reach a verdict after being out from 6 o'clock Monday evening till 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The case was tried in the Superior court at McAlester. Sawyer is known as the champion "ear biter" of this section.

A New Enterprise.

The bottling works of Carano and Silva, located at the corner of Second and Filmore, in this city, is now turning out some of the best grades of pop and ale's ever put on the market. They have installed new machinery throughout and have a capacity of 250 cases per day. Their business has started off in a very promising way and every day since their opening they have been busy filling orders. This office turned out a large amount of printing for them this week.
